EXISTING TENSION RELIEVED

BRITISH STEAMER RELEASED BY RUSSIA.

LONDON PAPERS EXPRESS SATISFACTION THE INCIDENT HAS BEEN AMICABLY SETTLED—JAPANESE REPORT OF BATTLE—OTHER NEWS.

Washington, July 22.—Spencer Eddy, American charge at St. Petersburg, cabled the state department that the British embassy has been officially notified the Malacca has been released and in consequence the existing tension has been relieved.

Russian authorities after receiving the report of the captain of the St. Petersburg tried to stop the Malacca at Port Said, but she had already sailed.

ARE SATISFIED.

London, July 23.—Morning papers generally express satisfaction that the Malacca incident has been settled in accordance with demands of Great Britain, though there is inclination to await settlement of the broader question of passage through the Dardanelles of volunteer fleet steamers before bellying all danger to be averted. This feeling is heightened by Balfour's announcement on adjournment of commons that he still had no official news to communicate in connection with the Malacca incident or with the volunteer fleet steamers in general.

STEAMER MALACCA.

St. Petersburg, July 23, 2:05 a. m.—The steamer Malacca is at Suda bay, island of Crete, where, under agreement reached between Great Britain and Russia, she will be examined and inspected jointly by officials of both countries and released, together with her cargo, unless palpable contraband of war intended for Japanese will be found, in which case only the contraband will be held. The British government stores on board the vessel will be examined.

JAPANESE REPORT.

Tokyo, July 22, 7 p. m.—General Kuroki after a severe fight occupied Hsiao Tung July 19. Kuroki's troops drove the Russians from their strongly fortified position on the Chiliver, northwest of Motenass and east of Anping, inflicting more serious losses than they sustained themselves. The fight began on the 18th and ended on the 19th. Japanese lost 424 killed and wounded. Russian losses are estimated at 1,000.

Kuroki began his advance early in the morning of the 18th. He uncovered and followed along the Chi river. Russians seemed to be retiring to the northward, when suddenly two battalions with eight guns turned and attacked the Japanese advance guard vigorously. At this point the Japanese suffered before relief came, a company losing all its officers. Russians occupied an eminence on the banks of the Chi. This never guarded their left flank and high precipices protected their right. The only approach to their position was through a narrow defile. Fighting continued until midnight. The Russians made two counter attacks, but were repulsed. The main Japanese body was engaged to attack the Russian center, a small detachment was sent toward the right and another to watch the left. After these positions had been taken fighting ceased for a time, but was resumed at dawn. The Russians had thirty-two guns in action and they vigorously shelled the Japanese. To this fire the Japanese replied and the bombardment lasted four hours. During this the Japanese infantry moved forward and haukers had succeeded in scaling the heights on the Russian right by 8 o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour the main force was ordered to storm the Russian center. Japanese artillery protected this movement splendidly, but the infantry met with a severe and lost heavily in gaining the heights. The final successful charge was delivered at 5:30 in the afternoon. The Japanese succeeded in partly cutting off the Russian retreat and this soon became rout. The enemy went to the northward and eastward.

The Russian forces engaged included, in addition to artillery, seven battalions of infantry and a regiment of Cossacks. The enemy lost 131 dead and 300 rifles on the field. Prisoners taken estimated the Russian losses at 1,000. The Japanese lost 424 killed and wounded.

REPORTS OF FIGHTING.

Boston, July 22.—An annual report of the Calumet and Hecla Mining company for the year ended April 30, issued to day, shows a surplus of $6,583,039, against $6,657,023 last year. During the year 76,420,290 pounds of copper were produced.

The production of the year was 12,622 pounds less than during the previous year. Dividends aggregating $4,000,000 were distributed to shareholders. This amount and $26,000 increase in surplus over last year represents the earnings.

Messenger prints the following from Liao Yang, July 20:

"Our left flank yesterday withstood a powerful onslaught of the enemy. Reinforcements were sent out. A Caucasian mounted brigade left Liao Yang this morning."

THE STRIKE IS ON AGAIN

ANOTHER WALKOUT AT PACKING HOUSES

TROUBLE CAUSED BY MISUNDERSTANDING OF AGREEMENT—ALLIED TRADES READY TO GO ON SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

Chicago, July 22.—The packing house strike was to day renewed in Chicago and all other cities. Violation of agreement by packing house proprietors is assigned as the reason.

The following telegram was sent by President Donnelly to all employees of various packing houses in different cities affected by the previous strike:

"Order out all departments again. Companies violated agreement."

To day three thousand cattle butchers reported at the stock yards for work. Only half of them were given places. Thereupon all refused to work. They reported in a body at their union headquarters. A general order for renewal of the strike was soon forthcoming.

President Donnelly of the union requested leaders of all allied trades to order out their men in sympathetic strike.

While the immediate provocation for renewal of the strike was apparently failure of the packers to take back larger proportion of strikers who reported for work to day, the real cause of the rupture is inferred to be a circular issued yesterday by the packers. The circular purported to explain the agreement entered into with labor leaders. Seemingly the circular could be taken as implying the agreement did not bind the packers to re-employ all of the men who walked out. The construction the labor leaders placed upon the agreement was all should be re-employed within forty-five days.

The summary action in ordering renewal of hostilities was followed by equally vigorous efforts to restore peace. News of the strike order was followed within an hour by announcement of a joint conference had been arranged to take place this afternoon between packers and labor leaders. It was stated, to discuss the alleged unjust discrimination of packers.

President Donnelly said the packers agreed to replace men without discrimination, but the action in refusing to take back certain men was a plain violation of agreements.

Packers hurriedly called a conference to consider the situation and issued a statement expressing surprise at the strike, saying some delay would be required to get started again in anything like full capacity and that it is the intention of the packers to carry out the agreement in every particular and if any house has given cause for grievances can be and any future grievances will be readily adjusted.

Buying was active early in the day, but ceased when it became known the struggle was renewed. Brokers rushed to telephone offices to flood the country with warnings to stop the influx of stock.

FAIL TO REACH AGREEMENT.

The joint conference between representatives of meat packers and the meat butchers' union failed to reach an agreement to night in an effort to adjust the stock yards strike and another conference was arranged for to morrow morning.

To day's conference lasted five hours, but could not reach a working basis with which both sides would be satisfied. Whether the conference can be satisfactorily settled at to morrow's meeting is problematical as both packers and strikers maintain they are living up to Wednesday's agreement for a settlement by arbitration and that it is the other side that is responsible for the renewal of hostilities. No written statement of what transpired in the meeting was given out and the committee declined to give any further information except that another meeting would be held to morrow.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

Unless a settlement is reached to morrow the general belief is a sympathetic strike of allied trades in the packing industry, which was threatened last week to enforce the demands of the strikers, will be called. All these unions have signified a willingness to stand by the butchers when they are called on to assist in the struggle with the packers for sympathy.

President Donnelly issued a statement to night in which he declared the packers signed an agreement not to discriminate in rehiring men, that the unions accepted this in good faith, but that to day when the men presented themselves active union men were signalled out and refused employment. He also alleged the packers employed men in some departments who had not been employed prior to the strike.

BUSY DAY FOR POLICE.

Police were kept busy until late to night suppressing numerous small riots in the stock yards district. One girl who had taken the place of a striker was set upon by a mob of nearly one thousand boys and girls. They chased her several blocks, pelting her with mud and stones. When she finally reached home she fell in a heap on the doorstep, exhausted from fright and bruises. The girl was dragged into the house by her father before the pursuing crowd could reach her. A riot call was sent in and it took a wagon load of police to disperse the rioters.

The first rioting of the day came when Frank Miller was set upon by strike sympathizers, who beat him so badly it was said he has little chance of recovering.

A crowd assuming Joseph Younichs, a Nelson Morris company employee, who was injured while at work, was a nonunion man, attacked the ambulance in which he was being removed to the company's improvised hospital in the yards. With revolvers policemen and doctors attended their charge until help came.

NEW DEMANDS.

Late to night it was learned the obstacle which prevented settlement of the strike at to day's conference was the fact the strikers made new demands. One of these was that strikers be reinstated within ten days, instead of forty-five days as originally agreed upon.

Advice received from St. Paul, Kansas City, East St. Louis, Sioux City, Omaha and St. Joseph show that union men who entered packing plants at these places to resume work this morning obeyed President Donnelly's second strike order to a man.

While the men claim there was discrimination in re-employment of strikers, managers of plants insist such was not the case, but that all strikers could not be given employment to day because of shortage of the supply of cattle.

IN OTHER CITIES.

St. Paul, July 22.—Butchers at the Swift plant were called out again to day. Business Agent Steep said only about 60 per cent of the strikers had been taken back.

Kansas City, July 22.—The order to renew the strike was a surprise to both packers and men. Several thousand men appeared at various plants ready to work, but only a limited number were taken back. C. W. Armour said one reason why all could not be taken back immediately was because not sufficient livestock was on the market.

Strike breakers were attacked by strikers and a general fist fight ensued. A number of nonunionists were beaten. None were seriously hurt.

East St. Louis, July 22.—Four thousand five hundred employees of packing houses, a majority of whom had been assigned old positions, have again struck.

ACCUSED OF MURDER

MAN ARRESTED IN VIRGINIA FOR KILLING SHERIFF OF WISCONSIN COUNTY.

Jonesville, Va., July 22.—Sheriff Ball to day arrested William Bell Wilson alias William Anderson, who is charged with murdering the sheriff at Falls Creek, Wis., some months ago. Sheriff Ball had seen Wilson in the county and suspected him on account of his peculiar conduct.

When he received a letter later from Wisconsin authorities giving a description of Wilson and stating that there was $500 reward for his capture he was prompt to act. Wilson is held for Wisconsin officials.

Buffalo, July 22.—The message from Secretary Walsh received in Washington to day stating that Judge Parker would be notified of his nomination next Tuesday was shown Norman E. Mack, committeeman from New York, to night. Mack expressed surprise and said there must be a misunderstanding of the facts. He and his thought notification would not take place until some time between the 6th and 10th of August, the exact date to be fixed by Parker. Mack said possibly confusion of statements might have some connection with the fact the Democratic national committee has been called to meet on July 26.

Chicago, July 22.—Ely E. ## GORMAN WILL NOT SERVE

REFUSES TO ACCEPT DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMANSHIP

MARYLAND SENATOR CANNOT BE INDUCED TO ALTER HIS DETERMINATION—TAGGART ONLY ONE LEFT IN RACE.

Washington, July 22.—Senator Gorman to day stated it is impossible for him to accept the chairmanship of the national Democratic committee.

New York, July 22.—The announcement from Washington that Senator Gorman had reiterated his declaration he could not be chairman of the Democratic national committee has simplified the situation, according to those who are urging Thomas Taggart, of Indianapolis, and they say he will be unanimously chosen chairman by the committee next Tuesday.

Esopus, N. Y., July 22.—Information received here to day Senator Gorman cannot be induced to alter his determination not to undertake the management of the campaign, and Judge Parker was informed by the Associated Press of a dispatch from Washington that he had reiterated his declaration that some younger man should be chosen. William F. Sheehan, who was the choice of many eastern leaders, was with Parker at the time. He discussed briefly his own position, making it plain that he stands firm in his refusal to serve as manager of the campaign. From his attitude he no longer can be regarded as a possibility. August Belmont also has asserted that he will not accept an active part in the campaign management, and thus Taggart is the only one of those put forward for the chairmanship who is left in the race.

DAVIS PREPARING ADDRESS.

Bedford, Pa., July 22.—Senator Davis since his arrival here last night has been busy preparing his nomination address. Notification will occur at his home in West Virginia early in August. MACK SURPRISED.

Buffalo, July 22.—The message from Secretary Walsh received in Washington to day stating that Judge Parker would be notified of his nomination next Tuesday was shown Norman E. Mack, committeeman from New York, to night. Mack expressed surprise and said there must be a misunderstanding of the facts. He and his thought notification would not take place until some time between the 6th and 10th of August, the exact date to be fixed by Parker.

W.D. DUNN'S REPORT.

R. G. Dunn & Co. say: Encouraging factors predominate. Little definite increase is seen in the distribution of merchandise, but developments of the past week promise better things in the near future. The most important influence for good is a brighter crop prospect. For the present the best news comes from large cities, where warm weather has stimulated the retail trade in light weight fabrics and jobbers report orders from agricultural communities much better than from manufacturing centers. Reports of railway earnings for July so far show only a small loss of 1.5 per cent, compared with the same period last year. In textile markets the most important event is the decision of the operatives at Fall River to strike next Monday against a reduction of wages. Considering the fact there is little demand and stocks of goods are ample for current needs, it is probable the trade will not be seriously affected. In the woolen goods division the chief feature was the opening of new lines of mens wear at moderate prices.

Failures of the week numbered 125 in the United States, against 191 last year.

LAND SEEKERS.

Chicago, July 22.—The movement westward, on account of opening the Rosebud Indian reservation in South Dakota exceeded all expectations. The Chicago & Northwestern road alone took 30,000 people to Bismarck, Fairbank and Yankton. Tomorrow is the last day for registration, drawings for choice commencing on the 28th inst.

TO SETTLE DISPUTE.

Hayward, Wis., July 22.—In the dispute between the Chippewa Lumber & Boom Co. and John Dietz it has been decided to submit all differences to the grand master of the Masonic lodge of Wisconsin for settlement.

MURDERER SHOT HIMSELF.

Sibley, Iowa, July 22.—Fred Hoduk, the self-confessed murderer of Peter Johnson, who has been confined in jail here for the past few weeks, shot himself in the stomach to day. He is in a very critical condition and will likely die. It is thought the revolver was handed him by one of his relatives who visited him.

BOAT ON FIRE.

Clayton, N. Y., July 22.—The Visger company's excursion steamer Castanet, with 150 passengers on board, took fire below Kingston, Ont., this afternoon. All passengers were safely transferred to a passing steam yacht.

BANK CLEARINGS.

EIGHTY FIVE BOLT PARKER AND DAVIS

Democrats in Colorado Send Letter to Denver Republican Giving Reasons for Leaving Party.

In a long letter to the Denver Republican, State Senator Barlow, of Trinidad, Colo., gives his reasons for bolting Judge Parker and voting the Republican ticket. After reciting his thirty years of faithful service to the Democratic party he says:

"Political parties are fashioned as instruments through which to improve the government. Government is an instrument of the people, through which they seek to preserve their individual and relative rights, provide for their common defense, promote their mutual happiness and preserve inviolate and to the fullest extent universal liberty of the governed, thereby making possible the fullest exercise of every man's energy and ingenuity and the enjoyment of the fruits thereof."

"The time was when the Democratic party advocated principles calculated to accomplish these things. It taught the protection of man in the enjoyment of his rights. It encouraged the accumulation of wealth and the protection and elevation of labor. "But the last decade has given to the people of this nation a new Democratic party, with new platform, new principles, new methods, and—judging from the methods, we are moved to fear—new purposes."

This statement is signed by himself and eighty-four other Democrats, all of whom have been long devoted to the party. In the county in 1896 there were but three votes cast for President McKinley. The prospects now are that Roosevelt will carry the state. The free silver issue is dead there, and that was the strength of the Democratic party in 1896 and 1900.

We have every reason to proclaim a grand hurrah and be jubilant, as this has been the banner year of the Big Store, from basement to garret. Never before have the citizens of Jacksonville and surrounding country patronized us to such an extent, regardless of cold and rainy weather, and never before have we been so well able to supply their wants throughout the entire house. Now it is our intention, on the strength of this success and patronage to conduct a to clean out everything in the way of summer goods, remnants and broken lots, regardless of cost, so as to enable us to give our patrons from season to season nothing but new, fresh and clean merchandise, bought at the right time, in the right market, at the right prices. This does not mean that a few things will be marked down and sold cheap, but everything in the entire house will be sold at manufacturers' prices or less during this sale.

SEEING IS BELIEVING!

We mean business when we say that this is the greatest sacrifice in prices on honest, dependable, up-to-date merchandise Jacksonville has ever known. Take a day's vacation, bring your cash and visit our store. It will pay you better than going to the fair.

BARN BURNED.

Burned, with all its contents, a barn on the Richardson farm near Riggston, Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

The farm is occupied by John Hopper and he was away at the time of the fire, the origin of which is unknown. The house, which is about fifty yards away, also caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before much damage resulted.

The loss will be in the neighborhood of $500. One hundred dollars worth of grain was destroyed, two sets of harness and other property.

Candle in the Lamp Chimney.
Place a candle on a table and light it. Place a lamp chimney over it, and after a few minutes you will see the candle flame go out. This peculiar result is due to the rapid accumulation of the products of combustion in the lower part of the chimney. The vitiated air soon extinguishes the flame.

How can we still retain the protection of the chimney and avoid putting out the flame?

Of course we might place the chimney on three or four supports and thus, admitting plenty of fresh air at the lower end, insure perfect combustion by the circulation of the heated air. Such is the method we use in all our ordinary lamps.

But there is a more original solution of the difficulty. Place a bit of iron wire horizontally on the chimney top. A hatpin will answer. Then bend a visiting card, exactly the width of the chimney, in such a way that the hooked part will hang over the wire and the longer end hang down the chimney. You will thus have divided the chimney into two equal portions at the top by the aid of your little two inch diaphragm. From this instant you will observe that the candle burns with renewed vitality. The reason of this is that fresh air descends upon the flame on one side of the cardboard, while on the other rise the products of combustion.

This double circulation you may prove by holding a lighted match to the chimney top. On one side of the card its flame is sucked in, on the other side obstinately rejected.

In order to make sure that no air enters at the base of the chimney you can place it in a soup plate full of water.

Mysterious Jewsharp.
A Jewsharp is placed at the mouth and apparently played for awhile by the finger in the ordinary way. Gradually, however, the young magician moves his finger away and begins beating time with it, while the Jewsharp, strange to say, continues to play in the most marvelous manner.

In order to show his audience that there is no thread connecting his finger with the tongue of the harp he asks them to watch him while he passes his "magic" wand about it in every direction.

The trick is this: Your Jewsharp must have a very flexible tongue, first of all. Cover the tip of it with a bit of sealing wax. Place it so that the tongue of it is inside your mouth.

Now place the tip of your tongue against the tip of the harp tongue and, pushing both out together, suddenly pull your tongue back.

You will find that the harp will twang in the same way as if you had pulled it out with your finger.

A little practice will make you able to play the jewsharp just as readily this way as by using your finger.

Of course, when you begin to show the trick you put your right forefinger to the mouth and move it as if playing in the ordinary way. This makes your audience believe that the tongue of the jewsharp is outside your mouth instead of inside.

PEORIA COUNTY COMPLAINS*Protests to Board of Charities Against Transportation of Insane Patients.

Springfield, July 22.—A committee of the board of supervisors of Peoria county appeared before Governor Yates yesterday morning to protest against the action of the state board of public charities in placing Peoria county in the Watertown district instead of the Jacksonville district in the reapportionment of the insane patients of the state. They claimed the change would work great hardship to Peoria county financially, as it would cost the county about $300 to transport the 120 patients now in the Jacksonville asylum to Watertown, and that the Jacksonville asylum is more convenient for the sending of the Peoria county patients than the Watertown asylum.

Dr. George A. Zeller, of Peoria, superintendent of the hospital for the incurable insane at Watertown; Dr. H. B. Carriel, superintendent of the central hospital for the insane at Jacksonville; Dr. Frank S. Whitman, superintendent of the northern hospital for the insane at Elgin; Dr. George Mitchell, of Peoria, and Senator James D. Putnam, of Peoria, listened to the arguments or took part in them. Dr. Carriel complained that the asylum at Jacksonville was overcrowded and that there must be some relief.

Governor Yates declared that he did not see how he had any voice under the law in the matter, and referred the petitioners to the state board of public charities, who had assembled in the city for the express purpose of hearing this petition. The committee therefore went before the board of charities in the afternoon with their request. The board rendered no decision in the matter yesterday, but it is understood they will make no change in their new appointment.

Another committee composed of Robert Crier, Cyrus L. Berry, Norris Pitt and Gustave Harsch and J. S. Rickards, asked the governor to pardon or parole the forty girls in the Home of Blessing in Peoria and then transfer them to the Evangelical Lutheran Kinderfreund association. No action was taken by the governor in the matter.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE.

"Scenes from Southern California" was the subject of an interesting stereopticon lecture given Friday evening in Centenary church by Miss Nellie Levings. The pictures were excellent. Miss Levings gave a graphic and thorough description of the wonders of Southern California. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance.

Of course we might place the chimney on three or four supports and thus, admitting plenty of fresh air at the lower end, insure perfect combustion by the circulation of the heated air. Such is the method we use in all our ordinary lamps.

But there is a more original solution of the difficulty. Place a bit of iron wire horizontally on the chimney top. A hatpin will answer. ### "GOLDEN RULE" JONES

Anecdotes of the Late Mayor of Toledo.

STOOD ON HIS HEAD IN PUBLIC

An Instance Where He Practiced What He Preached—Athletic Feat in a Fire Engine House—How He Sang Himself Into Office—Dislike For Titles.

The late Samuel Milton Jones, the "Golden Rule" mayor of Toledo, O., was an enthusiast in neighborhood settlements for the betterment of the condition of the poor, says a Toledo dispatch to the New York Evening World. He was a frequent lecturer for the societies having those charities in charge and was the esteemed friend of such persons as Miss Jane Adams of Chicago and of Jacob A. Riis.

To attract a crowd so that he would be able to convince them by his argument, Mayor Jones was in the habit of doing some startling things. More than once he stood on his head in front of the hall in which he was to speak. That feature collected the crowd. Then he would use his argument to convince or convert them.

On several occasions Mr. Jones acted as police judge and there put his golden rule theory into practice. Instead of sending a man to the workhouse for getting drunk or committing some misdemeanor the mayor would give him a fatherly lecture and dismiss him with the injunction: "My dear man, the spirit is good, but the flesh is weak. Go forth and sin no more." And, strange as it may appear, not a single man whom Mayor Jones treated in this manner has been arrested since or seen in the police court at Toledo, says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

He said that every man of them who promised him that they would go forth and make men of themselves have kept their words, while if they had been sent to the workhouse they would have lost all pride and ambition and would probably have dropped to the level of common criminals. Another incident clearly shows how earnestly Mayor Jones was imbued with the principles of the Golden Rule.

He was making an address one day at Golden Rule park to a delegation of workmen who called to congratulate him on his overwhelming election. Among the big crowd was a little ragged and bareheaded boy about eight years old. The little fellow had heard much about Mayor Jones and was trying to wriggle to the platform so as to get close to the mayor, but the crowd paid no attention to the ragged little fellow. He carried a tiny flower in his hand, which he desired to present to the mayor as his little mite and tribute of respect and esteem.

The mayor's keen eye soon caught a glimpse of the child trying to push his way to the front through the dense crowd.

"Open up there and let that child through," said the mayor rather testily. "He wants to hear and see what is going on just as well as you do. That child is just as good in the eyes of God as your child or my child. The little fellow is not responsible for the rags he is compelled to wear, but the social conditions are which make it impossible for his parents to clothe him as well as you and I may be able to clothe our children. It is just such boys as this one who produce the men who spread the light of truth and reform.

Mayor Jones then reached down and gently picking the little fellow up placed him on a chair on the platform alongside of him so that he could see and hear everything.

The mayor said to the child: "My little man, you have just the same right here as my child or the millionaire's child. Because your clothes are torn it does not mean that your little heart cannot feel for humanity. Some day, my little man, you may be teaching us all true principles of sociology."

This conduct was what won the hearts of the crowd and the mayor was tendered an ovation. This was not done on the part of the mayor for effect. He was really an impulsive man, but had great determination and force of character. He really thought the ragged little boy was being justified because he was poor, and Mayor Jones' heart swelled up until he could bear it no longer. This only goes to illustrate how he won the hearts of the people.

Hand over hand, with his body as tight as the muscles that maintained it, Mayor Jones once moved kindly and gracefully up the heavy brass rod leading from the sleeping quarters of the fire boys at engine house No. 3, in Toledo, from the engine room floor below, and only stopped ascending when his head touched the roof, two floors from the ground. Try as they would, the half dozen brawny firemen could not come nearly up to Jones' record as a hand over hand climber, says the New York Times.

These athletic sports occurred at the Central fire station, the mayor having dropped in to pass the time of the day en route to affairs of state. There was nothing the mayor enjoyed more than some exercise, which would test the brawn of a man, and it pleased him to be able to lead and to watch the firemen try to follow. The brass rod is the fireman's stairway—coming down—but the mayor made it his going up, something the men rarely attempted, except when "bantered."

The mayor's grip was wonderfully strong, his great broad hands were well muscled and well trained. The mayor preferred running or walking down town to riding, he preferred to sleep in the open air, and hence upon his back porch.

Mayor Jones was criticized in a curious manner for his failure in his last gubernatorial campaign, says the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Mr. Jones was a musician of considerable talent, besides a big manufacturer and a popular politician. When he was running for the mayoralty of Toledo he wrote two songs and sang them himself in "Golden Rule Hall," an institution of his own, where musicals are given free for the benefit of workingmen and their families.

At a meeting in that same hall a labor advocate said to him: "Mr. Mayor, in my opinion you lost this last election because you didn't write songs and sing them as you did the last time you ran for office."

Some handsome charts and calendars were issued last year in Toledo, giving the names of the heads and subordinates in all the city offices of Toledo. These adorn the business houses and offices of many professional men and city officials, says the New York Times. As one was hanging in the mayor's office, Mayor Jones' attention was called to it. It contained, in good sized type, these words: "Hon. Samuel M. Jones, Mayor." He deliberately took out his pocketknife, cut out the "Hon." returned the knife to his pocket without a word and then went on with his discussion.

IN TUNE WITH THE WAR.

Shops of St. Petersburg Display Patriotic Emblems.

The windows of the St. Petersburg shops are almost the only outward indication that Russia is engaged in a life and death struggle in the far east, writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. Picture post cards are as popular there as in Germany, but with this difference, that all depict either well known generals, soldier types or views of Vladivostok and Port Arthur. One post card shows a Russian and a Japanese fighting with short swords, while a Frenchman behind a tree calls out: "Let him have it, golubichki (my little pigeon). My men and money are yours for the asking."

A mechanical toy sold in the shops represents a Russian soldier whirling a diminutive Japanese around in his pigtail. Another toy, of German origin, is an Indian rubber frog, painted in Japanese colors, which, when blown out, takes the form of an ox and bursts. Soldiers' buttons are being extensively shown on models of ladies' dresses in shop windows. Lockets, adorned with regimental colors in enamel, are beginning to appear in the jeweler's shops, and lucky charms and "mascots," shaped like guns, shells and torpedoes, are finding ready purchasers.

CAMPAIGNING IN AN AUTO.

Wisconsin Governor's Plan to Reach the Country Voters.

It has become known at Lacrosse, Wis., through friends of Governor La Follette, and close in his councils, that he is to make a campaign this summer and next fall, taking in every country town and cross roads, speaking to as many voters as possible. He will make the trip in an automobile of heavy road type, and fast enough to skip over the country roads at a good speed, says a Lacrosse dispatch.

His reason for taking an automobile, the informant states, is that there are thousands of voters who cannot be reached by railroads, and he could not afford a special train, even if the railroads would allow him one. The machine is to be given to him by friends who have money and who reside both in and out of the state. The tour is to begin as soon as the governor is through giving his regular summer lectures at the watering places.

SCHOOL IN FOREST FOR SICKLY CHILDREN

A new kind of school is about to be started, by the authorities of Charlottenburg, in Germany, for the benefit of children who, though not exactly ill, are so weakly that they are very liable to be attacked by disease, more especially tuberculosis, says the London Standard. The school, which is to accommodate from 120 to 125 children, is to be built in the depth of the Jumfernheide woods, near Berlin, and the children will remain there the whole day, special arrangements being made to supply them with their meals. They are only to receive from two to three hours' instruction daily and are to spend the rest of the day in taking healthy exercise in the forest. The experiment, if found successful, will result in a permanent school being established.

STRANGE PROVISION OF A WILL.

If Samuel Gardner of Wilkesbarre, Pa., will sleep in one room the rest of his natural life he will inherit the fortune of Sarah Gardner, whose will was filed at Wilkesbarre. Should he refuse he will lose. The rear room on the south side of the Gardner home in Wilkesbarre is the one picked out for the testator. None of the family can explain the peculiar clause in the will, except it be to discipline the young man for not wanting to use what is considered the worst room in the house. He will accept the bequest.

Silver Card Cases in Vogue.

The summer card case will not so much as suggest leather. It comes in silk, plain, striped and moire and in silk covered with lace. Bits of point or duchesse lace may be taken to the leather shop, and they will be made up to order over silk to match the calling costume.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Conversation of Two Women Who Were Out Shopping.

They met down on Chestnut street the other morning. Each had a bundle and each looked happy. After a few introductory remarks, just enough to impress each other that they were glad they had met, this conversation ensued:

"Yes, Mollie is down with—
"Oh, you don't say so?"
"She was taken with—
"The poor girl!"

"As I was going to say, Mollie is—
"And she always was delicate."

"Yes; but as I was going to say—"—
"Give her my love and tell her I hope she will soon be out."

"Pardon me, my dear, but as I was going to say—
"Who's your doctor?"

"Pardon me again; but as I started to say—"—
"Oh, did you start to say something? I beg your pardon."

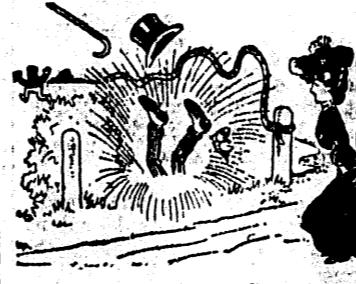

"As I started to say, Mollie is down with her aunt in New Jersey. She was taken with a desire to get to the country and went yesterday."

And then both went back to the bargain counters.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Percy Succeeded All Right.

"By jove," said Percy, "here come Grace and Helen! Now's my time to make an impression."

But just then Grace's young brother untied the rope Percy was leaning against.

HIS FEAR.

Sunday School Teacher—What is the meaning of regenerated, Tommy?

Tommy—It means to be born again.

Sunday School Teacher—That's right. And would you like to be born again?

Tommy—No, ma'am. I'd be afraid.

Sunday School Teacher—What would you be afraid of?

Tommy—I'd be afraid I might be born a girl next time.—New York World.

She Had Never Caught Any.

"Why is it," she asked, "that so many of the men have shaved off their mustaches?"

"I think," he answered, "it must be because the doctors claim mustaches are likely to have microbes in them."

"Oh," she exclaimed, "I never caught any—that is—dear me—I didn't mean—"

But he assured her she needn't mind, as he was engaged to another girl anyway.—Chicago Record-Herald.

HOW HE GOT IT.

De Bore—How did you catch your cold?

De Bristle—You know colds are contagious?

"Yes."

"Well, I caught it asking other people how they caught their colds."—New York Weekly.

READ THIS:

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1891.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

The telegram had informed him that she had been drowned late on the night before. He did not receive the message till 10 o'clock yesterday, and caught the first train for Chicago at 12:30 in the afternoon. He reached Chicago at 5:35 and hurried at once to his home. His wife, who knew nothing of the message that had been sent out to her husband, saw him approaching and ran out to meet him. The joyful surprise at finding his wife alive and well instead of dead almost unnerved him.

DEATH RECORD

WORRALL.

Mrs. Paulina Worrall, widow of Julius Worrall, died suddenly Friday morning at 4 o'clock at her home four miles northwest of Murrayville, at the age of 55 years. Death was due to heart disease, of which she had been ailing for some time previously. She was suddenly attacked early Friday morning and succeeded in arousing the members of the family, but expired within a few minutes.

Paulina Lawson was born in Scott county in 1849. She was married Dec. 15, 1867, to Julius Worrall. To this union eight children were born, seven of whom survive, four sons and three daughters, as follows: William B., Joseph F., Frank A. and Julius H. Worrall; Mrs. Anna M. Angelo, Lillie M. and Nellie Myrtle Worrall. One daughter died in infancy and her husband also died suddenly of heart disease on April 26 last.

Funeral services will be held from the Baptist church in Murrayville Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment will be in Bethel cemetery.

SCOTT.

Mrs. Susan Jane Scott, of St. Louis, passed away at Arcadia, Mo., Tuesday, where she had been visiting.

Many friends in this city will be saddened by the news of her death, and their sincere sympathy will go out to her daughter, Miss Anna Scott, and her sons, Charles and Harry, all residents of St. Louis.

The funeral was held Friday with interment in Belfontaine cemetery, St. Louis.

STRUBE'S TRIAL.

The trial of Fred Strube for the murder of Miss Alice Henninger near Havana on the night of Nov. 14, 1903, will come up in the Mason county circuit court in Havana, on Aug. 18. The plea of the defense will be insanity and the father and grandfather of the accused will put up a great fight for his life.

The long confinement of the prisoner has affected his strength to some extent, but the report that his health is failing to such an extent that he is not expected to live until the date of his trial is untrue. He is morose and sullen a greater part of the time, but his health is normal.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

Horse Frightened at Automobile Drops Dead—Sangamon River Rising—Brick Pavement for Country Road.

Waukegan—Dr. York, of Antioch, was driving his horse near the village Wednesday, when an auto came along. The animal was frightened, but as it had passed similar machines before the doctor thought little of it. However, when the auto got directly opposite the horse the animal reared high into the air and dropped over dead.

The first suit to be filed in Lake county to recover damages as a result of a horse doing injury by running away when scared at an automobile was filed in the circuit court Wednesday. The plaintiff is Charles E. Churchill, of Lake Zurich, and he sued Elmer Robertson, of Chicago, who has a summer home at Lake Zurich, for $10,000 on the ground that his horse became frightened at Robertson's auto, ran away and threw him out so that he sustained severe injuries.

Monmouth—Monmouth township, famed as the builder of the first country brick pavement, was honored Tuesday by a visit from experts in the employ of the United States department of agriculture. They came to inspect the pavement that has been laid by the township and to collect data which will be of service to the department.

Whitehall—The Sewer Pipe and Stoneware company now employs over 200 workmen, and the pay roll has reached over $10,000 per month, nearly all of which remains in Whitehall. President Morrow says that when both departments are in condition to run at full capacity, some fifty or sixty more employees will be added to the pay roll.

Havana—The Sangamon river and Pecan creek in the vicinity of Kilbourne have been rising rapidly and both streams are out of their banks owing to the weak condition of the levees. The commissioners of the Marion and Menard drainage district are preparing to straighten and shorten the channel of the Sangamon thus preventing the annual overflow of land in that vicinity. A slight raise of these two streams at this time of the year will ruin several hundred acres of corn.
